

The 14th International Conference on Integral Methods in Science and Engineering

Department of Mathematics,
University of Padova, 25 - 29 July 2016

SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT

This is the second announcement of the 14th conference on Integral Methods in Science and Engineering (IMSE) which will take place from July 25 to July 29, 2016 at the University of Padova, Italy, and will be organized by the University of Padova in association with the University of Tulsa, Oklahoma, USA.

We are pleased to announce that the following mathematicians have accepted to deliver a plenary talk:

- Habib Ammari (ETH, Zürich, Switzerland).
- Alberto Cialdea (Università della Basilicata, Italy).
- David Colton (University of Delaware, Newark, US).
- Monique Dauge (IRMAR, Université de Rennes 1, France).
- Filippo Gazzola (Politecnico di Milano, Italy).
- Wolfgang Hackbusch (Max Planck Institute for Mathematics in the Sciences, Leipzig, Germany).
- Ralf Hiptmair (ETH, Zürich, Switzerland).
- Vladimir Maz'ya (Linköping University, Sweden).
- Olaf Steinbach (Technische Universität Graz, Austria).
- Christiane Tretter (University of Bern, Switzerland).

Early bird registration is now open and will last until May 31, 2016. For more information, please visit <http://events.math.unipd.it/imse2016/node/7>.

You can now submit an abstract. The deadline for the submission of abstracts for contributed talks is April 30, 2016. Notification of acceptance for contributed talks will be given by May 15, 2016. Instructions can be found at <http://events.math.unipd.it/imse2016/node/22>.

Conference organizers will give special financial consideration to unsupported young scientists and scientists from developing countries, and make every effort to waive or lower their fee.
